Volunteer Connections

3500 S. Rural Road • 480-350-5190 • www.tempe.gov/volunteer

START THE SCHOOL YEAR OFF RIGHT... GET INVOLVED IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Get involved in your community, make new friends, learn new things, feel good about yourself, make a difference, and so much more by volunteering!

City government volunteers serve at the Tempe Public Library, Tempe Historical and Petersen House Museums, as members of the award winning Crisis Response Team, on city boards and commissions, with special events and more.

For information, call or visit online.

Saturday, September 16, 10am Tempe Public Library, Connections Café Program Room Volunteering 101

If you've never volunteered before and are at a loss as how to get started, this informative session is for you. Explore all you can do in the community as a volunteer, and how you can get started. The hour-long session is free, but registration is required. Call 480-350-5190.

Volunteer Opportunities for Teens

School-year opportunities exist at the Tempe Public Library, Tempe Historical Museum, starting in September. Teens can help their community, build a record of volunteer service, gain work-like experience by volunteering. For information and an application, call the Volunteer Office.

City-wide Volunteer Fair!

Friday, September 22,
10 am – 1 pm

Tempe Public Library, Lower Level Program Room

Thought about volunteering, but don't know how to get started? Attend the volunteer fair and speak with representatives from a wide variety of Tempe non-profit organizations—all in one place at one time!

Opportunities exist from meals-on-wheels to working with children and much more. Visit each booth and get free coffee from the library's Connections Café. $5 café gift card door prizes will be given out throughout the event.

Service Groups Wanted!

Have fun, build team spirit and help the community! The City of Tempe is looking for school, corporate, and other service groups to help run its special events for the community. For a list of 2006/2007 one-time group projects, call 480-350-5190 or visit anytime online at www.tempe.gov/volunteer.

Become a Museum Volunteer!

Tuesday, October 3, 9 am

Tempe Historical Museum, 809 E. Southern Ave.

You can help preserve Tempe's history and learn more about Tempe by volunteering at the museum. Find out how you can help at this hour-long orientation for prospective volunteers.

Be a "Buddy" to a Disabled Athlete

Help a disabled athlete enjoy the sport of bowling. Volunteers are needed to serve as team captains and to assist bowlers in this league for special bowlers. Games are played Saturday mornings at AMF Tempe Village Lanes, 4407 S. Rural Rd., August 26– November 11. League fees are waived for volunteers. Call Linda Cano at 480-858-2469.

On-going Collection Drives at the Library

There are permanent collection bins in the Tempe Public Library lobby for:

Campbell's product labels (redeemed for equipment and supplies for the Youth Library)

Miniature toiletries items (given to the homeless)

Canned food items (donated to the food bank at the Escalante Community Center)

Used eye glasses (donated to the Lion's Club)

Used books (sold by the Friends of the Library to benefit the library)

Information

Notice to Persons with Disabilities-The

City of Tempe endeavors to make all of its programs, services and facilities accessible to, usable by and available to qualified individuals with disabilities. Persons with disabilities are encouraged to call 480-350-5200 regarding program eligibility requirements, accessibility and usability of programs, services and facilities. With 48 hours advance notice, special assistance can also be provided for sight and/or hearing impaired persons. The Community Services and Parks and Recreation departments have available a personal reading machine, assistive listening devices and a text telephone/TDD 480-350-5050.

Telephone Device For The Hearing Impaired-A text telephone/TDD at 480-350-5050 for persons who are hearing impaired is available to assist persons in securing information about the Community Services and Parks and Recreation Department's activities and programs.

Equal Access Is For Everyone-All Community Services and Parks and Recreation Department's programs and facilities are open to all citizens regardless of race, sex, color, religion, national origin or disability.

Notice to Participants-Participants must recognize that all classes/activities of a physical nature involve some risk and that by registering for a class/activity of this nature there is an assumption of risk by the participants. The City of Tempe Community Services and Parks and Recreation Departments are dedicated to providing safe facilities and equipment for all participants, as well as qualified staff.

The City of Tempe carries no medical insurance and assumes no liability for personal injuries or loss of personal property of persons participating in or attending City of Tempe classes/activities. A participant's family policy must cover any medical cost incurred.

It is the responsibility of individuals or parents of individuals participating in a City of Tempe class/activity to notify the City of Tempe of any physical limitation that may limit or impair their activity in the program for which they are registered.

Fee assistance-The City of Tempe Community Services and Parks and Recreation Departments offer fee assistance for various recreation programs for qualifying Tempe residents. For further information call 480-350-5277.

The City of Tempe is an equal opportunity/reasonable accommodation employer.

Resident and Non-Resident Policy-For the purpose of registration or reservations, a Tempe resident is defined as any person living within the corporate limits of the City of Tempe. This does not include individuals who reside outside the City of Tempe and attend Tempe schools or who own property in Tempe. A Post Office Box is not considered a Tempe residential address and will be treated as non-resident.

Fees charged for classes or activities do not cover the cost of equipment or facility usage, but are charged to offset the cost of instruction and leadership only. Random address checks will be made to confirm residency. Non-Tempe residents giving a false Tempe address will be immediately dropped from the activity with no refund.

Youth and Adult Fees

Youth fees apply to those 17 years of age or younger. Adult fees apply to those 18 years of age and older.

Program Philosophy-Classes are designed to provide the participant with the basic skills in a craft or subject so that he/she can use these skills during his/her leisure for enjoyment and recreation. These classes are not academically oriented, nor are they taught within the frame of reference of an institution such as a high school or university. The City of Tempe Community Services and Parks and Recreation Departments are providing leisure time activities rather than training to be professional potters, painters or dancers. Our purpose is to introduce the public to the fields of arts, sports, language, crafts, dance, exercise, culture and music for leisure enrichment.

Those Dam Builders: A Photographic Essay of Central Arizona Dam Construction

Sept. 22-March 16
This exhibit highlights a collection of photographs donated to the Tempe Historical Museum by Raymond Carrington in 1998. The photographs document the construction of the dams built along the Salt and Verde rivers between 1906 and 1946. Coupled with these photographs are first-hand accounts of the dam construction process and its workers, plus additional photographs from the Salt River Project Archives and History Center. This exhibition tells the story of who worked on the dams, where these laborers lived and what it took to raise these dams.

Current Exhibits in the Changing Galleries

"Tempe in the 1930s"-This exhibit looks at life in Tempe during the Great Depression. It was researched and written by Corona del Sol High School students with the guidance of Eric Ladue, Social Studies Chair. Funded by an Arizona Heritage Project grant from Salt River Project, the exhibit is open through January 25, 2007.

"A Day in the Life of Mill Avenue"-Mill Avenue District, the heart of Tempe, is alive with memorable people and inviting activities every hour of the day and night. Come along for a photographic stroll through the Mill Avenue District during the past year. Photographer Larry Mishler created this photo-essay. It is open through January 25, 2007.

"A Proud Journey Home: Cambodian, Laotian and Vietnamese Communities in Arizona"-This exhibit explores Cambodian, Laotian and Vietnamese refugee experiences in Tempe 30 years after the Vietnam War. Featured are oral histories, photographs and objects from these communities. The exhibit was funded in part through an Arizona Humanities Council "We the People" grant. Since it opened, it has received several awards: Diversity Award, City of Tempe; Best Adaptation to Stated Theme Award, Museum Association of Arizona; Award of Merit, American Association of State and Local History. Due to the popularity of this exhibit, it has been extended.

Niels Petersen, a Danish immigrant, settled in Tempe after sailing the high seas as a merchant marine. He built this Queen Anne style Victorian home as a wedding present for his second wife, Susanna, in 1892. Take a free tour of the house and enjoy the stained glass windows, hand-stenciled wall paper, gilded picture rails and much more.
